about
F (Am on last run)

VERSE 2:

monthly payments made to the bank said my prayers, universe i thank future's bright canvas is blank horizon filled with big blue sky suddenly over my shoulder surveillance new world order robot dogs are next gen soldiers how to escape this AI gone awry

CHORUS x2

BRIDGE (ride the Em):

(Rhymes by ProfSE)

It's like everytime i turn around, somethings tryna bring me down it's enough to tempt me to be resting 6 ft underground

but i keep holding out no i won't take the quick way out no doubt Lady Luck gives a fuck about me some kind of tough love test without me knowing it with nothing to show for the moment so i take my head and i hold it with both hands here's hoping all these dreadful thoughts i focus with give me the strength to go and cope with it otherwise it's hopeless

VERSE 3:

nature calls at all the wrong time walk in a park when it rumbles below hurry to find a public throne some place to get some relief suddenly a desperate grasp frantically reaching underneath feeling stuck on this seat cant find a single square sheet

CHORUS
